

SIPRD, ASSAM GETS NEW DIRECTOR

In a simple function organised at State Institute of Panchayat and Rural Development, Assam in its Khanapara campus Sri Kageswar Pegu, ACS, took the charge as Director, SIPRD, Assam from Sri A M M Zakir on 13th March 2018 as Sri AMM Zakir had to return to his parent organisation and going to retire on 31st March, 2018. The function was attended by all the staff from different Extension Centres of SIPRD, Assam. Hon'ble Sri MGVK Bhanu, Additional Chief Secretary, Govt. of Assam addressed the gathering and appealed to all the staff to cooperate with the new Director for smooth functioning of the Institute and also to retain the good name of SIPRD in all India level. The ex Director Sri AMM Zakir became emotional and thanked all the staff for cooperation he received during his tenure and made humble request to all to maintain the same spirit in future.

The new Director, Sri Kageswar Pegu, ACS, spoke in the function and also interacted with the staff. He requested everybody so that the good name and prestige of the Institute could be taken to a new height.